

As a Ham radio operator for 45 years, I am intensely opposed to the allowance of broadband over power lines for internet connections due to the noise radiation it will cause on my licensed ham station. This noise will be harmful to my station in causing me not to be able to copy (read) signals that otherwise would be readable. Thank you for consideration of my comment!

Barry,
Amateur Radio Station K4WWY